Cricketers take to the pitch

Murrumburrah hosted Cootamundra Public in the first round of the PSSA cricket knockout at Tim Doolan Oval Harden last Wednesday.

MPS lost the toss and Cootamundra elected to bat first. Strong opening bowling from MPS saw Cootamundra lose early wickets cheaply. The Cootamundra middle order showed good form with two of their batsmen retiring and coming back later in the innings. MPS players displayed great effort and enthusiasm in the field.

Murrumburrah were chasing a total of 106. MPS batsmen, Riley Arabin and Darcy Fogg started strong with both notching up decent runs. Mitch Brown followed, making 25 runs before retiring. The wickets fell fairly quickly after this point until Scott Watmore came to the crease and played smart and solid until Mitch Brown returned and added another 31 runs to his score.

It was so close with Murrumburrah falling one run short of the required total, when Mitch was caught at point. Mitch finished with a total of 56 runs. All the boys played very well on the day and had a great time. Well done, boys.
